

JUST A PAPER CLIP

Several years ago an expensive laboratory jet was approaching Edwards Air Force Base in California. When the pilot tried to lower the nose gear to landing position, it didn't respond.

The copilot ran a quick check and traced the problem to a faulty relay panel. Recognizing the problem, he hunted around for something to bypass the relay and activate the nose gear.

He found a paper clip, bent it, and bypassed the relay with it so that it triggered the nose gear. It worked like a charm, saving the expensive jet from a crash landing.

At that moment, for that special job, the lowly paper clip was more important than the rest of the sophisticated equipment on the plane.

Even though you may experience an occasional mundane existence in living, your Creator has designed you for a special job. Whether you are expensive property like the laboratory jet or a lowly paper clip, you have been designed for a valuable purpose. Your design does not include plans for intentional crashes; but in cases of emergency, crash recovery is always on standby.

Believe this—your life is of great value!—Glenn Hitchcock

Hear the words of the Lord: "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved" (John3:16-17).
