

MINE'S THE ONLY OPINION THAT COUNTS

Babe Ruth, the famous baseball player and home run hitter, was once called out on strikes. He argued with the umpire. He said, "There are 40,000 people here who know that last one was a ball, tomato head." But the umpire, stone-faced, replied, "Maybe so, but mine is the only opinion that counts."

How true this is when we apply it to our relationship with God. No matter what the doctrines of men say, no matter what we think, no matter if 40,000 or 40 million people say it is so, we cannot accept it, unless we can find it in God's inspired Word and we know it is God's opinion, for it is only His opinion that counts.

Paul knew, near the end of his life, that one opinion mattered—that of the Ultimate Umpire, the Righteous Judge. In 2 Timothy 4:8 "Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day." Paul was in prison. He had spent most of his life teaching Christ and Him crucified (1 Corinthians 1:23). Paul had persevered even though he was beaten, thrown into prison, shipwrecked, and stoned and left for dead. He never once took his eyes off Jesus, "the author and finisher of our faith" (Hebrews 12:2). He had only One to please, One to obey, One that would judge his actions and his heart.

In 1 Timothy 4:6, Paul wrote, "If you instruct the brethren in these things [verses 1–5], you will be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished in the words of faith and of the good doctrine which you have carefully followed." Then in verse 10 he adds: "For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe." Paul knew that he could only trust in the One who saves, the living God.

We need to heed these words of Paul—meditate on the gospel 1 Timothy 4:16. We need to solidify our relationship with God, just as Paul did; so that we can know that we have that "crown of righteousness" that Paul knew he had. Let's recognize that God is in control, and give Him the honor and praise due Him. —Author Unknown
