

Standing on Top of the Mountain!

Have you ever stood on the top of a mountain? Now I am not talking about driving, riding in a train or even being carried on a lift of some type to the top. I am talking about standing on the top of a mountain after climbing it by foot all the way from the bottom to the top! I have done this several times in my life. I mean think about it, hiking back and forth up switch back trails, sometimes having to climb boulders where there seems to be no trail. With each moment that a little bit of a view becomes visible of the ground below where you had started. The anticipation and tiredness of your legs and aching of your feet. Even with all that it seems to not matter because your goal is to arrive at the top and get to look out at what you had accomplished by climbing thousands of feet upward.

I can remember when I was around 14 years old. I had hiked up to the top of one of the mountains in the Olympic Rainforest in Washington state on the Olympic Peninsula. As I continued to climb the mountain it became very difficult to see because we had entered into the clouds that were around the mountain tops. It was amazing to see the tree line begin to disappear and only find rock and hard dirt round us. I can remember as we came closer to the top we were emerging from the clouds and with about another 500 feet we had reached the top. It was like as if we were standing at the top of the world looking at a sea of clouds with other mountain tops sticking up out of the clouds in every direction.

I thought this is amazing I just climbed a mountain. But the more I looked the more I realized it was not near as amazing as what I was looking at, God's awesome and beautiful handy work "Let them shout from the top of the mountains, let them give glory to the Lord, and declare His praise..." (Isaiah 42:11-12). I can still see it as clear as day. But now many years later I realize that the most amazing thing is to think that the greatest creation of God was probably the smallest thing standing up out mountains, clouds and all the vastness of space God said that we were His greatest creation made in His image (Genesis 1:27). With that being the case, we need to always remember that God created us as souls to follow Him and one day be with Him standing above everything in heaven, in His presence giving praise and glory to Him "Let all the earth fear the Lord; Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him" (Psalm 33:8). God is awesome and because of His greatness we too can be great! (Ernie Maiwald)
