

FUSSING AROUND

Long ago an old lady was to take a train about fifty miles through a most beautiful country. For months she contemplated the trip. She was anxious to enjoy the beautiful scenery.

The day came and she boarded the train. After getting her seat, she began arranging matters. She placed her bags, fixed her lunch box, adjusted the shades, and got everything ready to enjoy the trip.

Sad to say, just as everything was adjusted and she settled back, the conductor called out her station. She hurried and gathered up her belongings.

“Oh, me!” she said, “If I had known we would get here so soon, I would not have wasted my time fussing around.”

That is a fair picture of many in life. We are so busy with the transient things that we have little time to prepare for the next world. About the time we think we are all fixed for this world, the death angel will call out, “Eternity.”

“The days of our lives are seventy years; And if by reason of strength they are eighty years, yet their boast is only labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away” (Psalm 90:10) -Author Unknown

There will be a memorial service at the Central Church of Christ, Martinsburg, WV, on Saturday, March 24, at 4:00 PM. The family will receive friends visitation at 3:00 PM.
