

WHERE HAPPINESS IS

Whenever I am disappointed with my spot in my life, I stop and think about little Jamie Scott.

Jamie was trying out for a part in a school play. His mother told me that he had set his heart on being in it, though she feared he would not be chosen. On the day the parts were awarded, I went with her to collect him after school. Jamie rushed up to her, eyes shining with pride and excitement. "Guess what Mom," he shouted, and then he said those words that will remain with me: "I've been chosen to clap and cheer!"

Life may not be the party that you were expecting, but you can still clap and cheer. Remember, some folks did not wake up today; you did. Find your purpose for living and learn to smile while pursuing your goal.

Your health may not be that great, but God built you with a storm in mind— weather the storms! Quality of life is not always greatness of health, but it is "what you have left" that matters.

Finally, do not allow your lack of wealth to destroy the things you have left. Grandma always said, "There is plenty of cheese in a mousetrap, but you will never see a happy mouse there."

"A man has joy by the answer of his mouth, and a word spoken in due season, how good it is" (Proverbs 15:23).—
