

READ IT LIKE A CHILD

Children can say some of the most interesting things with perfect timing. I remember one such incident while I was interning in the state of Washington.

After a VBS session, a four-year-old boy from the congregation asked the preacher, “Were you on the ark?” He replied, laughing, “No!” The boy quickly responded, “Well, how did you survive the flood?”

Jesus calls us to be like children “Then they brought little children to Him, that He might touch them, Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of God. Assuredly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will by no means enter it. And He took them up in His arms, laid His hands on them, and blessed them” (Mark 10:13–16).

The simple thinking of a child can open our minds to what is important in the kingdom. To think like a child is simply to trust God and His word. If we can view scripture in such an honest and open-minded fashion, then God can reveal Himself in new ways to us.

As we trust His word to mean what it says, we will grow in understanding as all children do. —Wade Smith

“Unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 18:3).

The Woodbridge elders recommend the following Bible translations for our public worship and study: New King James Version, King James Version and American Standard Version, 1901

Welcome, Visitors!

Thank you for coming to worship with us today. You are our honored guests. We are a Bible church with Bible aims relying on God's word as our only authority. We invite you to join us in worshipping through:

- o singing (Eph 5:19)
- o praying (I Tim 2:1-2)
- o studying (II Tim 4:2)
- o giving (I Cor 16:2)
- o remembering our Lord's sacrifice through communion (Acts 20:7).

We want to have a record of your visit. Please complete the visitor's card that is in the pew before you and place it in the collection basket or hand it to one of our members.

If we can be of service to you, in any way, please let us know. And please visit with us again soon. We look forward to seeing you.
