

THE ROAD LEADING TO A KNOTHOLE

Most everyone has come to a place in life where confusion and loss of direction set in. It usually occurs while you are in your twenties, but it can occur at any time for many different reasons.

The situation resembles that of the lost traveler in the heart of the Ozark Mountains. He inquired of a native, “Am I on the road to Kansas City?” “Well,” the mountain man said, “Not exactly, Bud. This road just moseys along for a piece, then it turns into a hog trail, then a squirrel track, and finally runs up a scrub pine tree and ends in a knothole.”

Maybe you have been down that path; perhaps you feel like you are on that path right now. But you don’t have to be. We need to be walking in the “old paths” (Jeremiah 6:16) and in the “narrow way” of Christ so not to end up in that knothole of destruction—the path that leads to nowhere.

Friends, “Make level the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established” (Proverbs 4:26), “walk in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of justice” (Proverbs 8:20), and “a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for the redeemed: the wayfaring men, yea fools, shall not err therein” (Isaiah 35:8). —Tom Moore

The deepest level of worship is praising God inspite of the pain, thanking God during the trials, trusting Him when we’re tempted to lose hope and LOVING Him when He seems so distant and far away.

At my lowest, God is my hope.

At my darkest, God is my light.

At my weakest, God is my strength.

At my saddest, God is my comforter.
