

Punching Holes in Darkness

A young boy with his face to the window watched with fascination as an old lamplighter came down the street.

One by one he was lighting the old-fashioned gas street lamps. Excited, the young boy called out to his grandmother, "Nana! Nana! Come quickly. There is a man outside who is punching holes in the darkness!"

At its most simple, the responsibility of Christians is to punch holes in the darkness of this world. Without the righteousness and morality that God has instilled, there is no other way to truly break up the darkness in this life. We can't do this by our own light, but we can reflect the light of Jesus by living right.

Jesus said it clearly, "You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven" (Matthew 5:14-16).

We've heard these words before; now let's live them. The world isn't getting any brighter. Let's punch holes in the darkness. —Brent Petrillo, Denver, Colorado—Read Luke 18:1

-------------------------	----

We all have our days where we feel we can't survive.
Sometimes dreams are shattered,
Friendships may fall apart.
Loved one's may hurt us.
Finances may worry us.
Sickness may overtake us.
We may even lose people we love. But God will ALWAYS be there to guide us through even the toughest of times. Never lose FAITH. Hold onto HOPE.
TRUST in GOD ALWAYS!
