

A TEENAGERS'S PRAYER

“Dear Father in heaven, I am young and don’t understand what it is like to be a parent, but it must be hard. I pray you will help Mom and Dad to be good parents, strong in the ways you want them to be. I want to look up to them with admiration and feel confident that their instruction is right.

“Help me, dear Lord, to understand my parents. Remind me that when I don’t get my way, it is because they love me and not because they want to be mean or deprive me of a good time.

“When I become stubborn and refuse to listen, help me, God, to accept the fact that they have wisdom and experience since they were once teenagers themselves; whereas I have never been a parent.

“Put in my heart the respect and consideration they deserve for their years of hard work and sacrifice. They raised me as best they could. Let me not repay them with grief or shame. Rather, help me to give them obedience, respect, forgiveness, and love.

“Most of all, God, while I still have my parents here on earth, help me to appreciate them and let them know I do.”

—The Salina Journal, 1983

“Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. ‘Honor your father and mother,’ which is the first commandment with promise: ‘that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth.’ And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.” (Ephesians 6:1–4)

-----------------------	---

I asked for strength and
 God gave me difficulties to make me strong.
 I asked for wisdom and
 God gave me problems to solve.
 I asked for prosperity and
 God gave me brawn and brains to work.
 I asked for courage and
 God gave me dangers to overcome.
 I asked for patience and
 God placed me in situations where I was forced to wait.
 I asked for love and
 God gave me troubled people to help.
 I asked for favors and
 God gave me opportunities.
 I received nothing I wanted
 I received everything I need.

My prayers have all be answered.
